

Use a thesaurus.
Find 6 synonyms for dark.

Write a detailed recount of a dream you once had. It can be a good dream or a nightmare.

Would you like to read
the rest of the novel?
Explain your answer.

Make up 5 quiz
questions about the story so far. Don't forget to write down
the answers!

Reading Journal
Pick 'n' Mix
Read the opening to Room 13.
Choose your activities from the selection here.

Do you think the story
is set in the past,
present or future?
Make a list of evidence in the text that supports your opinion.

Draw a cartoon strip of the main events in the story so far.

The writer uses lots of short sentences and dark language to make the reader feel afraid. Rewrite the opening changing the details to make the reader feel warm and safe instead.

What is a stalactite?
Write the definition
then use the word in a sentence to illustrate the meaning.

Predict
Fliss wakes up from a bad dream but she is scared by it. The next day she goes on a school trip. What do you think will happen on the trip?
What makes you think that?

Find and copy two sentences that create a scary atmosphere.
Explain the effect.