Middle School

RESPECT OTHERS, ENRICH LIVES AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE

- Core Values

Oldfields Hall Middle School promotes a culture of respect, kindness, tolerance, equality and honesty to allow all members of the school community to thrive.

- Teaching & Learning

All pupils will experience teaching and learning that is enjoyable, inspirational, and engaging enabling them to achieve their full potential. Pupils are motivated to self-improve and move towards independence.

- Pupil Progress

From robust data, staff ensure that pupils will progress beyond our challenging expectations and achieve in excess of local and national standards.

- Parent Links

Parents can expect a highly effective partnership between school and home with timely communications and an approachable ethos which is both mutually respectful and shares the highest aspiration for their children.

- School Curriculum

All students are engaged in a broad curriculum that sets them on their journey through education on to the world of work.
The skills practised through the curriculum will equip them for life as local, national and global citizens.

- Opportunities

A wide range of extra-curricular activities enable all pupils to develop their individuality and skills and work as part of a team.

- Pastoral care for pupils

The school will provide a safe, happy school environment which builds the self-confidence and self-esteem of the whole pupil.

- Staff training

Our continuing professional development (CPD) will empower staff to maximise their own potential and that of their pupils by investing in an individualised pathway which encourages them to challenge themselves and to innovate.

- Wellbeing for all

All staff and pupils are valued and supported to achieve their potential. The welfare of all staff and pupils is considered as part of the schools monitoring and development procedures
